

We use the satellite in our business trucks and personal vehicles and benefit very much from it's services. It is very insightful to get weather and traffic so we can decide what routes to take before we reach the normal bounds of conventional radio stations. It is also very nice for driving through South Dakota and other states where reception with a normal radio is not possible.